

The Dürkopp Adler group is a public listed company with around 1.320 employees worldwide. The Dürkopp Adler AG with its international subsidiaries develops, produces and distributes high quality special sewing machines as well as sewing systems for the textile and clothing-, automobile- and upholstery industry.

At the earliest possible date we are looking for a

Service technician m/f

Your responsibilities:

- global commissioning of complex sewing systems
- execute of global field services
- error analysis and related by fixing
- supporting customers in applications questions
- support of the service hotline and clarification of technical problems
- support for product development and product care

Your profile:

- completed education as a technician (electro engineering / mechatronics) or any comparable degree
- first experiences of international services
- high technical understanding and analytic faculty of thought
- MS Office, Mail and Internet skills
- high degree of self – organization skills
- willingness to travel for international deployment
- excellent written and spoken English skills

Please find more information about the DÜRKOPP ADLER AG under

www.duerkopp-adler.com

If you are interested in this multifaceted job with a high degree of possibilities, send us your application documents to:

Personalabteilung, z.H. Herrn Steinmeier,
Potsdamer Str. 190, 33719 Bielefeld
Tel.: 0521/925-2277
E-Mail: HR-online@duerkopp-adler.com